OCEANSIDE SEPTA MISSION STATEMENT

SEPTA is a Special Education Parent Teacher Association, whose members include: parents, caregivers, teachers, and therapists of exceptional children as well as other staff and members of the Oceanside School community. We sponsor workshops, speakers and events about a variety of issues and concerns of exceptional students and their families and their inclusion in our community. We keep abreast of recent educational legislation that affects our students. Anyone connected to the Oceanside school district is encouraged to join.

To provide a resource for information applicable to a wide variety of exceptional children presentations, workshops and the Internet. To improve communication between parents, school staff and administration. To be involved in decisions affecting exceptional children in the school community. To educate and sensitize the Oceanside School community to children who are differently abled.

- January 12th PASS & SEPTA joint Meeting, Ryan's Story, Bullying Workshop, 7:30pm
- January 19th Meeting & Workshop, Special Education Expo, 7pm at School #8 Gym

Dr. Jill DeRosa our new advisor introduced all the staff from the district who attended the meeting.

Our speaker for tonight is Dr. Steven Aletkin, a professor from Adelphi University. He will be discussing the differences between ADD and ADHD. He will discuss how each is diagnosed and treated.

The meeting adjourned at 9pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Pat Block, Recording Secretary

WORKSHOP

Dyslexia

Presented by John McGrath, Esq.

of the Long Island Dyslexia Association

The Long Island Branch of The International Dyslexia Association is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, scientific and educational organization which was formed to increase public awareness of dyslexia in the Long Island area of New York. We have been serving individuals with dyslexia, their families, and professionals in the field in this community for over 25 years.

We are a resource and support system for parents, dyslexics, and educators. Many of our members are actively involved in the diagnosis and remediation of dyslexia. Our members are educators, psychologists, physicians, individuals with dyslexia, and parents who have dealt with learning disability issues within local public and private schools.
